HUAXIA LOVE – Donation for SiChuan Earthquake Victims

On May 12, 2008, a massive earthquake hit SiChuan, China. The strongest earthquake in China for decades already caused death exceeding 19,000. The death toll is rising fast with every passing day. Tens of thousands of people are still buried in rubbles. Millions of lives are affected.

Huaxia Chinese School Headquarter wants to extend our deepest sympathy and condolence to those of our school families who have casualties and injuries among their loved ones in China. We wish more survivors would be found in the disaster region.

To express our care for the millions of people who lost so much in this unexpected disaster, Huaxia Chinese School Headquarter is once again collecting donation from all willing students and families. Natural disaster has immeasurable destructive power. But it can also help strength the invisible bonds and bring out more of our inner love. Donation is entirely voluntary. Parents can donate to their respective Huaxia branches, or send checks, payable to “Huaxia Chinese School” for “China 2008 SiChuan Earthquake” to:
